A funny, short holiday

Betty West likes being a secretary, but when it's hot and sunny she looks out of the window and dreams of holidays in the countryside. Betty loves being outside! Last Thursday, the weather was beautiful. But Betty had lots of work to do that morning. She turned on her computer and started writing all the important letters on her desk.

At twelve o'clock she said to Helen, the other secretary in the room, 'We need a holiday! But we can't leave the office. What shall we do?' Helen stood up and opened the big office window. 'Let's have a holiday here!' she said. 'Turn off the computers!'

The warm light from the sun came through the open window. The two women moved their desks and put a blanket from the office cupboard on the floor. Helen fetched two glasses and a cold bottle of lemonade from the office kitchen and put a box of cookies from her bag on a big white plate. Then Helen played a CD that had birdsong music on it.

The two women sat on the blanket, had their picnic, closed their eyes and dreamed of their holidays. It was difficult to start work again that afternoon! When Betty got home her husband asked, 'Did you have a good day?' 'Yes! I wrote 48 letters,' she laughed. 'But I went on holiday too!'

'I'm going to have lots of fun with my friend from school. We're going on holiday tomorrow!' 'What are you going to do?' her grandmother asked.

'Well, we have to take pens and write about the birds we see there, but my friend and I are going to look for a big, dark cave with bats and a furry mountain monster inside!' Mary said.

'That's very brave of you,' Grandma laughed. 'What else?' 'Well, we have to take things for washing,' Mary answered. 'But my friend and I are going to wash outside. We can clean our dirty faces in the rain! And we have to take things for eating, like forks and spoons, but my friend and I are going to put sweets and chocolate biscuits in our rucksacks and have snacks in the night. The wrong suitcase!

Lucy and her parents, Mr and Mrs Field, put their summer clothes and swimming things in their big brown suitcase and drove to the airport. Lucy was excited! She loved going on holiday. When the family arrived at the airport, they showed their tickets to a woman in a blue uniform then got on the plane. Lucy's mother read a magazine, her father slept because he was tired and Lucy watched a film. When they got off the plane, it was warm and sunny.

The hotel was ten kilometres away so they took a taxi there. 'Wow!' said Lucy when they arrived. 'Look at that swimming pool! Can we go swimming now?' 'Not yet, Lucy,' her mother said. 'We have to take our things up to our room first.' When Lucy's father picked up the suitcase, he said, 'That's strange. This feels much heavier than it did before!'

Mrs Field laughed. 'You think that because you're tired! Come on! I've got our key. Look! Our room number is 501. It's on the fifth floor.' They went up in the lift, found their room and went inside. Then Lucy's dad opened the suitcase to take out their swimming things.

'Oh no!' he said. 'Whose red hat is this? Why are these big brown shoes in the suitcase? Whose white sweater is this?'

What a terrible mistake! The family had the wrong suitcase!

Hello, my name's Jack. Last June, I went camping for the first time with Grandpa Peter and with my two cousins who are two years older than I am. It was exciting because we had to put up our tent at night. We couldn't see very much because it was so dark. I didn't know where we were! When I woke up early the next morning, there were so many sounds outside I couldn't believe it! I lay in the tent and listened to the birds that sang all kinds of different songs. I could also hear some water outside, but it sounded louder than a river. I opened the tent quietly because I didn't want to wake my grandfather and cousins. I didn't have any shoes on and the grass under my feet was wet but I didn't mind. This is the most beautiful place that I've ever seen, I thought.

The sound of the water came from a lovely waterfall that was behind some trees – just a little way from the tent. I wish I had a CD now of the music that it made there. I would like to hear it every morning when I wake up!

John stays in hospital

Look at the picture and read the story.

Last December it was very cold. It snowed a lot too. One Saturday, John was playing with his sledge on the hill near his house with a group of friends. Suddenly, he fell and broke his leg. His friends ran to tell his mother. An ambulance came and took John to hospital.

Poor John had to stay in hospital. The nurses and the other children there were very friendly. At first he was happy because he didn't have to go to school. He didn't have to do lots of homework and exams like his friends. He didn't have to do any schoolwork! He just listened to CDs and watched his favourite television programmes all day. But then the Christmas holidays started and John was still in hospital. He was bored. He didn't want to watch television or listen to CDs. He wanted to go home. 'I'm unhappy,' he thought.

But then a man came to his room with a bag of presents and a Christmas tree. John saw him on television sometimes. He was a famous sports star called Paul Windows, and he often visited children who were in hospital. He wasn't the only person who came that day. All the students from his class came to visit him too. And two of his teachers brought him the best present – some Maths homework!

Our planet takes 365 and a quarter days to ^{move}..... round the sun, so every four years we have a 'leap' year. In a leap year,..... are 366 days so we add another day to the month of February. Twelve months one year. Most months have 31 days, but four the months in a year only have 30 days. February is the month only has 28 or 29 days. Twice a year,..... countries in the world decide to change the time by one hour. We do this we want to use more light from the sun. It's easier for people who work outside if we change the time. It's better for people that have to do lot of driving too. We change the time the end of March and October. In March, we make the time one hour later and in October, one hour earlier. So, on the first day after the clocks changed in October,..... can stay in bed for another hour! Excellent!

Harry and the difficult questions

Harry Doors loved learning. He had hundreds of books in his room at home and liked using the computer at school to find out about jungles, clouds, kangaroos or anything else that he found interesting.

One day Harry's teacher said, 'Would you like to be on a TV programme, Harry? It's a competition for the cleverest children in the country. You'll have to answer lots of difficult questions!' Harry said, 'Yes! Of course!'

The next day, a man called Mr Silver came to Harry's school to talk to him about the competition. 'Before we can film you, Harry,' he said, 'I have three quick questions for you. Ready?' 'Yes!' Harry whispered. He was a little afraid!

'Good! Where's the River Thames?' 'In London,' Harry said quietly.

'Well done! What's 27 times 5?' '135!' Harry answered quickly.

'Great! Which is the highest mountain in the world?' 'Mount Everest and it's 8,848 metres high!' Harry answered with a big smile on his face. He knew that all his answers were right.

'Excellent!' the man said. 'You're clever enough for the competition next Tuesday. A taxi will bring you and your parents to Television House at six o'clock! Now, I just need to know your age. When's your birthday, Harry?' Harry was so excited he couldn't speak. 'Sorry!' he said. 'I've forgotten!'

Look at the picture and read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

Naughty Daisy

Last Sunday, our family wanted to go and see the new animals that have arrived at our town zoo. But when we got up that morning, the weather was very cold and windy so it wasn't a good day to be outside. We decided to stay at home.

After lunch, my little sister Daisy was bored, so she came into my bedroom and asked, 'Tony, can you play this board game with me?' 'Sorry, Daisy,' I said, 'I can't. I have to study for my Science exam. I'll play with you later.'

Then Daisy went to the living room. Dad was there. 'Would you like to play with me, Dad?' she asked. 'Yes, I would, Daisy, but I'm busy now,' he answered. 'I'll play with you in ten minutes. I must finish this long and important letter first.'

Mum was in the hall. Daisy started to ask her to play with her too, but Mum said, 'Wait, Daisy. I'm talking to Aunt Sarah on the phone.'

'I can't find anyone to play with,' thought Daisy. She felt angry. She went upstairs to fetch her dolls.

When Dad finished his work, he called Daisy's name. Then Mum finished speaking to Aunt Sarah and called her name too. Daisy didn't answer. I stopped reading and listened and went downstairs because I heard her laugh. 'She's in the kitchen,' I thought. 'Why is she in there?'

Example

The family didn't go out on Sunday because it was very cold and windy outside.

- 1 was studying for his Science exam.
- 2 Daisy's father had to write his in the living room.
- 3 Daisy's mother couldn't talk to Daisy. She was speaking to
- 4 Daisy was because no one could play with her.
- 5 Daisy didn't answer when her called her name.
- 6 Tony heard Daisy laugh so he went
- 7 Tony wanted to know why Daisy was in

Find the places on the map. Then read the sentences and write the other places.

- 1 The river near this town is called the River Cross. It starts in the hills, runs down past our town and then it becomes part of the River West.
- 2 There's a bank on the corner of South Street and High Street, opposite the train station.
- 3 The post office is on High Street. It's across the street from the supermarket which opened last month.
- 4 A new sports shop has just opened. It's on River Road near the newspaper shop. All their hockey shirts are very cheap this week if you need a new one.
- 5 If you need to buy some medicine, there's a very friendly chemist's on the corner of River Road. It's very easy to see because it has a green cross outside.
- 6 There isn't a bus station in this town, but you can wait for the bus at the bus stops on both sides of South Street. The 11 o'clock bus has just stopped there.
- 7 If you need somewhere to stay, there's an excellent hotel across the street from the train station. It's called the Station Hotel because it's on the road with the same name.
- 8 A new restaurant is going to open between the hotel and the post office. The name outside says The Food Village so I think they're going to sell different kinds of food.

FUN for Flyers

Second edition

Fun for Flyers Second edition is a book of lively preparation material for students taking the Cambridge Young Learners Flyers test. This second edition has been updated and substantially extended to provide comprehensive practice of all areas of the syllabus. Fun activities are balanced with test-style tasks. The appealing design and motivating activities also make Fun for Flyers suitable for learners not taking the test.

- Covers all the grammar, vocabulary and skills learners need for the test.
- Specifically designed to focus on those areas most likely to cause problems for young learners at this level.
- A unit-by-unit wordlist provides easy reference for vocabulary learning.
- The accompanying website includes interactive tasks and further resources for classroom use.

The Teacher's Book includes:

- Step-by-step lesson guidance, including ideas for managing large and mixed-level classes.
- 'Young Learners tips' and a Flyers Test checklist to help teachers cover all aspects of the test.
- Extra photocopiable resource material, including a full Flyers practice test and extension activities.
- An alphabetical wordlist plus grammar and topic indexes for quick reference.
