Robert, Harry and the clever dog!

Last summer, Robert and Harry stayed at their grandparents' house by the sea. One hot and sunny morning, Grandmother made a picnic and took the boys to the beach. After lunch, Grandmother lay down and opened her book. The boys played football on the beach and then made a little castle with some sand.

Then Harry saw a strange cave which was near some big, grey rocks at the other end of the beach. The boys quickly ran to it and looked in, but they couldn't see anything because it was very dark. Harry said, 'It looks big inside. Come on! I'll go first.'

Harry and Robert were playing inside the cave when suddenly Robert said, 'Oh no! I can hear the sea! It's coming into the cave.' They were very afraid, but then Harry felt something wet on his hand. It was a dog's nose! The dog was very clever. It showed the boys another way out of the cave and back to the beach.

When they told their grandmother about the dog, she gave him three biscuits and said, 'Well done!'

'We're hungry too!' the boys said. 'Well,' Grandmother answered, 'you must wait until dinner. It was naughty to go into a dangerous place like that.' 'We're very, very sorry, Grandma!' they said. 'We won't do it again.'

Vicky and Jack and their exciting presents!

Mrs Green wanted her children, Vicky and Jack, to have good, strong teeth. Every night, she said, 'You must clean your teeth very well. It's important. And you shouldn't eat chocolate or sweets!' But Vicky and Jack didn't like cleaning their teeth. It was boring. And they loved chocolate and sweets!

One day, Mrs Green said, 'Next week, we are going to go and see the dentist. If you have very good teeth, I'll give you both something very nice.' Vicky and Jack were very excited when she said that. They cleaned their teeth very carefully after breakfast, lunch and dinner every day.

'Perhaps she'll give me a new bicycle,' said Vicky to her brother. 'Perhaps I'll have a new kite,' said Jack to his sister. They talked about their presents every night when they went to bed.

When they each sat in the dentist's chair, he looked into their mouths and said, 'Everything is fine. Your teeth look very strong and white. Excellent!' The children felt excited. 'What will our presents be?' they whispered in the back of the car on the way home.

When they arrived, Mrs Green smiled and said, 'You've been very good.' Then she opened the cupboard and gave them new pink toothbrushes. Vicky and Jack weren't very happy!

David meets a famous footballer!

David doesn't like school lessons very much. He loves sport and art but he thinks maths and English are very difficult. His father always told him, 'You must study hard at school. Subjects like maths and English are important.' But David didn't believe him.

One day, David was reading his town's newspaper when he saw something very interesting. He went to find his father. 'Dad, look at this! Some famous English footballers are going to come here to play. It's very exciting! Can we watch the game?' His father was very excited too and phoned the sports centre to buy some tickets, but there weren't any. Everyone wanted to be there, and lots of people already had their tickets. David was very sad.

The next day, David was at school when his teacher said, 'One of the English footballers is going to visit you all tomorrow! You can ask him questions. Perhaps he'll play football with you too!' The footballer was called Robert. He brought red and white T-shirts for all the children which was very kind. But David couldn't ask him any questions because he didn't know the English words. But it was great to meet him and David was very happy when Robert kicked a ball to him!
